About me

My name is Trevor Monn. I'm a 27-year-old flat track racer and motorcycle enthusiast. I have a huge drive when it comes to my racing career and it's something I take very seriously. From eating a steady diet and having a solid workout schedule to cross training with mountain biking. I have been racing motorcycles since the age of 6 started racing with motocross and now making a solid image into the flat track and Hooligan racing community. I also have a big passion for Harley Davidson motorcycles.

How you benefit

Flat track racing is a sport that is growing fast. Your company would be represented by a well-respected skilled rider. That is racing a motorcycle that not too many people see on the track anymore. My Harley Davidson is always the talk of the races and your company could be also. You also benefit from media exposure from being broadcast on NBC sports and FansChoicelive.tv to social media accounts using images of me with your logo on my race bike and jersey

How to help
